

Christmas Handkerchiefs.

(Selections can now be made to the very best advantage.)

Everything in the way of pure Linen Handkerchiefs that the loom and needleworker of the Old World can produce is here represented. The collection is so largethe designs so varied—that practically every taste is easily satisfied.

At 25 Cents: At this popular price we offer over a hundred different designs in Ladies' Lace Trimmed and Embroidered Handkerchiefs, as well as a large collection of Initial Handkerchiefs for both men and women, including Block, Script, Old English, and other styles; also Plain Hemstitched Handkerchiefs in endless variety, showing every desirable width of hem.

At 50 Cents: The collection at this price is almost as large and includes finer Lace Trimmed and Embroidered, Initial, and Plain Hemstitched goods; as well as some very attractive Madeira Hand Embroidered Handkerchiefs, showing eyelet embroidery, and some dainty Handkerchiefs with Armenian Lace trimming.

At $1.00 and upwards: The very finest of Handkerchiefs, delicately embroidered or beautifully lace-trimmed with Valenciennes, Duchesse, and Pointe Laces, as well as some unusually choice Hand Embroidered Swiss initial Handkerchiefs, and other beautiful goods.

THE PRESS.

Fitch is like a juggler, a quick change "artist" and an acrobat. He is a many-sided performer, who only stops short of hanging himself on the hatrack by the ear. He is up and down like a jack in the box; he is off as at the crack of a pistol, and once in action is as tireless as a Marathon runner.

THE AMERICAN.

It was the first Clyde Fitch opening of the season, and as such, of course, an event. It was more than that. It was a surprise.

You screamed and laughed and thought it quite the most amusing thing seen in town this winter.

In the Lyric Theatre last night the audience was in a gale of laughter before the first ten minutes of the new play. "The Blue Mouse." And that rapid mirth provoking tempo which marked the start of Clyde Fitch's adaptation from the German was maintained until the final curtain. THE HERALD. "The Blue Mouse" scampered down to the front of the stage in the Lyric Theatre las night, hopped over the footlights and jumpes straight into the good will of the whole audience.

AND THEN
An indelicate not to say obnoxious farce, called
"The Blue Mouse," adapted by Mr. Clyde Fitch from a foreign original, was acted last night at the Lyric Theatre, and was received with apparent rapture by a numerous audience.
